

SEVERAL FIRES

Kept the Department Busy Today

The fire department has had quite a busy time of it for the last 24 hours. At 6:30 o'clock last evening the department responded to a telephone alarm for a fire on the Pawtucket bridge, the result of a carelessly thrown cigar stub. The Pawtucketville company responded to the alarm and extinguished the fire. The damage was slight.

The alarm from box 21 at 12:15 this morning summoned the department to the fire in Kirk street where Mrs. Cori Sears and her husband were the victims of a lamp explosion, the story of which appears elsewhere.

Three minutes after box 21 sounded there was an alarm from box 14 and a bad mixup was narrowly averted in Merrimack square. After responding to box 21 and finding there was nothing for them to do the companies that had responded went to box 14's call to which the three nearest companies to the box had responded. It seemed that Merrimack square was the meeting point and the square was choked with electric cars.

One of the drivers was ignorant of the fact that a sewer job blocks one side of East Merrimack street and instead of going to the right of the car that was standing in that street, he went to the left and that was the beginning of confusion. The heavy teams had to swing back again and accident was avoided because the drivers kept their heads about them.

The alarm from box 14 was for a fire in a bureau in a house owned by John Flynn in Concord street, between Pond and Andover streets. The fire was quickly extinguished.

There was an alarm from box 63 at 9:50 this morning for a blarup fire in a shed owned by David Ziskin in Daly street. The damage was small.

MATRIMONIAL

A very pretty sentiment prompted the selection of "Bunker Hill Day" for the marriage celebration, in Brookline, of Addie Clark Brothers and Abner Lowell Kittredge. The bride is a daughter of the revolution many times over, all four of her great-grandfathers having fought in the revolutionary war, and one of them, Phineas Warren, being a near relative of Dr. Joseph Warren of Bunker Hill fame.

The groom, who comes from one of the oldest and wealthiest families of Lowell, is a prominent and well-to-do business man in that city.

The wedding, which was a very pretty affair and one of the social events of the season, took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Chas. F. Atkinson, of Fuller street, Brookline.

All the arrangements for the wedding were planned and carried out by Mrs. Atkinson.

The guests included the most prominent society people of Brookline, and the wedding gifts were numerous and costly.

The bridal itinerary will include a tour of the quaint old city of Quebec and other parts of Canada. After the first of October, Mr. and Mrs. Kittredge will be at home to their friends at their home on Myrtle street, Lowell.

ROBBINS-SAYNISCH

Lowell friends of Miss Louise Saynisch of New York will be interested to hear of her marriage, on June 13 last, to Mr. Edward B. Robbins, president of the Mercantile Trust company of New York. The wedding took place at St. Monica's church, Mr. and Mrs. Robbins leaving later on a wedding tour.

A MUSICAL NIGHT

MR. MATTHEW O'CONNELL ENTERTAINED PARTY OF FRIENDS.

Last evening Mr. Matthew O'Connell entertained a number of his friends at his residence, 10 Fay street. The musical program which he called a night of grand opera consisted of English and Italian selections. Mr. O'Connell has one of the latest improved Victor gramophone records in a cabinet and phonograph on the table without any semblance of apparatus of a trumpet. The records of the music are on discs, and it is the master to the reproduction of the human voice that a person could imagine. There were several other dishes. There were several other dishes.

The evening was most delightfully enjoyed, and at a late hour the party adjourned to their homes with their minds filled with the grandest musical selections they ever heard. It is rarely that a person has the opportunity to hear such selections, as Mr. O'Connell has perhaps the largest and best collection of records in this city.

The party passed a unanimous vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. O'Connell for the interesting musical entertainment.

Mr. Matthew O'Connell is a brother of Archbishop O'Connell and the father of Rev. James O'Connell, secretary to the archbishop.

STANDS BY COURTS WESTFORD STREET

Resolutions Committee Acts on To Be Paved With Hassam Pavement Says Supt. Morse

CHICAGO, June 18.—The biggest problem before the resolutions committee of the republican convention—that of the proposed plank in the platform dealing with the question of the use of court injunctions in labor controversies—was disposed of at 2 a. m. today when by a vote of 35 to 16 with two states (South Carolina and Louisiana) not represented the full committee agreed to the plank. It was predicted after the vote that there would be no fight on the matter on the floor of the convention when the full report of the committee was made today.

The full committee adopted the separate plank for Arizona and New Mexico, thus reversing the sub-committee's action.

At 2:30 a. m. the committee adjourned. The meeting of the full committee on resolutions was held in the "Francis First" room of the Auditorium hotel annex at Michigan avenue and Congress street and began at 10 o'clock last night. It was supposed to be strictly "executive and secret" and the bulk of the discussion was carried on in comparatively low tones inaudible a few feet beyond the outside of the group of committee members but when the much discussed plank relating to the limitation of court injunction orders, especially in labor controversies, was reached, the intensity of feeling which has marked all debates on this subject since the convention began was evidenced in raised voices and eager attention and attempts at secrecy were forgotten. At the same time the debate never reached the point of personal heat or exchange of invective.

The injunction plank was reported in the full committee a few minutes after 10 p. m. with Committee member McCarter of New Jersey opening the fight against its adoption. Mr. McCarter, whose remarks were filled with the declaration that such a plank would be a reflection upon the integrity of the court and was entirely unnecessary. He asked those in favor of it to show a single instance where the power by denunciations of the stand and demands of the labor people. Mr. McCarter's remarks occupied nearly fifteen minutes and during that time the committee sat apparently unmoved and there was no response in the way of applause or audible dissent as he concluded.

Senator Long of Kansas then took up the cudgels in behalf of the plank submitted by the sub-committee. He said that very rarely in the history of the world had the working of the plank while not so radical as was proposed by Mr. Gompers and several of the labor leaders, was nevertheless not a dodge or straddle but a step forward by the republican party. He declared that an issue unfrosted the party and that there would be no retreat if something was not done. He agreed that while the issuance of injunctions by the courts was a rule in strict conformity with the laws as they appear on the statute books, the plank proposed by the committee would serve to make the general practice a universal practice throughout the country.

Representative Serrano D. Paine of New York who is chairman of the committee on ways and means in the house of representatives, came out strongly in favor of the proposed plank. Mr. Paine said that the party was able to nominate a man who believed in such a measure and that he had declared himself in his speeches of the last two years and especially in his recent one in Cooper Union in New York city as strongly in favor of such action by congress. Mr. Paine dwelt at considerable length on the attitude of Mr. Taft in this connection and said that while he himself had been rigid to vote for Gov. Hughes for the presidential nomination he had no doubt but that the Ohio candidate would be the choice of the convention. He believed that the adoption of this plank in the republican platform would insure Mr. Taft's election.

Frank B. Kellogg of Minnesota followed with an equally spirited and vehement speech in support of the plank. Wade H. Ellis of Ohio surprised his hearers by quoting a telegram from President Roosevelt and a letter and a telegram from Secretary Taft. The president in his message first called attention to a telegram sent on the previous day in support of the injunction plank, "and I hope very much" the telegram continued, "that it will be adopted." The president said no stood for the "square deal" and was not in accord with the extremist views of either the manufacturers' association on the one hand or the trade unionists on the other.

Secretary Taft's communication showing his position on this question was announced two years ago before he became a candidate. He favored a plank which would make impossible the radical use of the injunction but would continue its conservative benefits. The plank was supported also by D. Lawrence Groner of Virginia, H. Remet of Arkansas and H. O. Burson of New Mexico. Mr. McCarter of New Jersey, William A. Drake of Colorado, B. F. O'Neill of Idaho, and Allen M. Fletcher of Vermont spoke in opposition to the plank but shortly before 6 o'clock it became evident that the patience of all hands was becoming exhausted, and when the proposition to bring the question to a vote was made it received unanimous support.

The method of taking the vote occasioned a brief discussion, some of the members of the committee desiring a simple division without record of individual votes. This was met by cries of "No, no!" "Roll call, roll call." An done compromise was said: "There is no harm in going on record on this question for the vote will never be made public."

All hands seemed to take this comfortable assurance for granted and the roll call by states was begun. The actual test vote was taken on a motion of Mr. Carter to eliminate the reference to the courts from the text of the plank. Owing to the confusion of excited conversation shuffling of chairs and weary committee-men stretching into comfortable attitudes after the long session the first vote, that of J. H. Montgomery of Alabama, was not heard. The chairman, Senator Hopkins, rapped loudly for order but still there was continued confusion, especially because some were in doubt as to the precise question upon which the committee was to vote. Chairman Hopkins explained the situation and the clerk began the roll call. Mr. Montgomery of Alabama voted "no." He was followed by H. M. Remmel of Arkansas, also in his negative, but

Despite the fact that the $100,000 loan to smooth pave Westford street was defeated in the common council, Westford street will be paved just the same and with Hassam pavement, too.

The superintendent of streets says that he will do the job out of his regular appropriation. He says that the street will have to be paved anyway and that now, when so many men are idle, is the time to do it. It will mean the depletion of Mr. Morse's appropriation for streets where he's at.

For the injunction plank—Montgomery of Alabama, Remmel of Arkansas, Ullman of Connecticut, Dupont of Delaware, Chubb of Florida, Johnson of Georgia, Hopkins of Illinois, Hemenway of Indiana, Long of Kansas, Bullitt of Kentucky, Mace of Maryland, Crane of Massachusetts, Kellogg of Minnesota, Kellogg of Mississippi, Warner of Missouri, Field of Nebraska, Paine of New York, Adams of North Carolina, LeMoine of North Dakota, Evans of Tennessee, Ellis of Ohio, Harris of Oklahoma, Dalzell of Pennsylvania, Dixon of Rhode Island, Crawford of South Dakota, Ogden of Texas, Groner of Virginia, Balingier of Washington, Cooper of Wisconsin, Clark of Wyoming, Sloan of Alaska, Fletcher of Arizona, Burson of New Mexico and the Philippines and Porto Rico, committee-men.

Against the plank—Melvin of California, Drake of Colorado, O'Neill of Idaho, Lacey of Iowa, Dunn of Maine, Fordney of Michigan, Bennett of Montana, Nixon of Nevada, Moses of New Hampshire, McCarter of New Jersey, Selbridge of Oregon, Sutherland of Utah, Fletcher of Vermont, Mann of West Virginia and the committee-men from the district of Columbia and Hawaii.

Louisiana and South Carolina were not recorded.

HARVARD WINS

In First Game With the Yale Nine

CAMBRIDGE, June 18.—Harvard and Yale met on Soldiers field today for the first of the annual series of baseball games between the two universities. Neither team as had a very successful season but both have shown improvement over the earlier games and the followers of both were confident of victory. Harvard's nine is practically a veteran team, while Yale has several new players in the lineup.

Yale was without the service of Van Vleet, the team's best pitcher, today, he having played in the games on Saturday and Tuesday and Howard Jones was announced as the pitcher to face Harvard. The Crimson had Hartford in the box and on the strength of his no-hit game against Cornell much was expected of him.

As announced before the game the line-ups were as follows:

McCall, 2b

Harvey, cf

Aranson, cf

Langman, cf

Wheaton, cf

Currier, c

JUSTICE BREWER

Makes Vigorous Defense of the Injunction Power

WORCESTER, June 18.—Without referring directly to the possible action to the republican national convention at Chicago on the proposed plank in the platform concerning the issuance of injunctions by the courts, Associated Justice D. J. Brewer of the U. S. supreme court made a vigorous defense of the courts and the injunction power in the course of an address at the commencement exercises at Clark college today. Justice Brewer said in part:

"There never was a time in the history of the nation when the full restraining power of the equity court was of so much importance to the nation."

The restraining power of the equity court is wished vastly more than the punishing power of the criminal court. I know that labor organizations are especially energetic in claiming that the power of injunction is used mainly against them. Of course this is not true. The restraining power of the court of equity should be enlarged and not diminished and the judiciary improved until all people will be assured that the power is only used when necessary requires and restraint imposed only when justice demands."

There was no intimation last night but that Massachusetts would present Governor Guild's name to the convention. Senator Lodge is slated to make the nominating speech and it is expected that some members of the Michigan delegation, among whom Gov. Guild is popular, will second the nomination.

A number of the Massachusetts men sought out the other New England delegations last night, urging concerted action in behalf of Governor Guild. They met with some encouragement, but it is understood no actual promises were given. None of the New England states held meetings last night although it was said that some of the states would seek to agree upon a candidate when the delegations came together at the convention hall today.

New Hampshire sentiment seemed to tend toward Fairbanks, although none of the delegates would give any direct preference.

SHERMAN BOOM

Took on Great Strength Last Night

CHICAGO, June 18.—A meeting of prominent republicans, most, but not all of them supporters of Secretary Taft, was held last night at the rooms of Frank H. Hitchcock, one of Mr. Taft's managers. The meeting began at 10 o'clock and was in session at midnight. It had been the expectation that this conference would decide upon an available candidate for the vice presidential nomination and it was even anticipated by some that the views of Secretary Taft as to the choice of a companion on the ticket would be made known.

The preponderance of opinion seemed to be favorable to the selection of some man from the Mississippi valley and the names of Senator Dooliver and Governor Cummins were frequently mentioned. The meeting was made aware of the action of the Iowa delegates in deciding to withdraw the name of Senator Dooliver in case it should be presented and it was the general view that such action would have a demoralizing effect upon the convention. It was represented that Vice President Fairbanks would have many friends in the convention and the opinion was voiced by some that, all things considered, he would make the most acceptable nominee that could be chosen.

The advancement of the boom of Rep. Sherman was freely commented upon, and several expressed the opinion that his nomination was highly probable but there was no decision to concentrate upon him.

The nearest approach to a conclusion was a general opinion that there would be no crystallization of sentiment before the taking of the first ballot for vice president at the beginning of today's session of the convention.

Other important developments in the vice presidential situation during the day were:

The decision of the Ohio delegation to withdraw the name of Sen. Dooliver in case it should be presented and to press Governor Cummins for the office; the active propaganda in behalf of Rep. Sherman; and development of strength by him in unexpected quarters, and the apparent falling off in the support of Vice President Fairbanks, due largely to his announcement of his refusal to be a candidate and to the fact that some of his Indiana friends have sharply antagonized the Taft movement. During the day John Hays Hammond definitely withdrew from the race, and it was announced that in all probability, Mr. Kellogg's claims would not be pressed.

The friends of George A. Knight, of California, were quite active in his behalf and apparently they were not without hope. The determination of the supporters of Gov. Guild and of Hon. Franklin I. Murphy to present their names to the convention was reiterated.

There was no intimation last night but that Massachusetts would present Governor Guild's name to the convention. Senator Lodge is slated to make the nominating speech and it is expected that some members of the Michigan delegation, among whom Gov. Guild is popular, will second the nomination.

A number of the Massachusetts men sought out the other New England delegations last night, urging concerted action in behalf of Governor Guild. They met with some encouragement, but it is understood no actual promises were given. None of the New England states held meetings last night although it was said that some of the states would seek to agree upon a candidate when the delegations came together at the convention hall today.

New Hampshire sentiment seemed to tend toward Fairbanks, although none of the delegates would give any direct preference.

PRES. ROOSEVELT

MEETING IN CLOSE TOUCH WITH CONVENTION AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft today had their fingers on the pulse of the Chicago convention. Shortly before 10 a. m. the president took his private train to the war department and immediately placed into the hands of the chief of the bureau of military intelligence the course of the disposition of the convention. Secretary Taft was accompanied by a photographer to the White House.

SUMMIT HOUSE

Was Destroyed by Fire Last Night

GOEHAM, N. H., June 18.—The Summit house, a hotel at the top of Mount Washington, known to thousands of summer tourists, was burned last night together with a large stable nearby. Situated at an elevation of over 6000 feet above the sea level, the burning building presented a strange spectacle which was visible from miles in all directions.

The fire broke out in a large world-en building of two and a half stories situated at the terminus of the Mount Washington railway at the highest point of the mountain. It was built 20 years ago and had accommodations for 200 guests. It was an expensive point for thousands of people who annually ascend the mountain on foot, by the railway, or by the roadway up the eastern side of the mountain.

Both the burned buildings were owned by the Boston and Maine Railroad company, and were leased by the firm of Barron and Merrow.

The buildings were valued at about $25,000 and were not insured.

NORTH CHELMSFORD

A SUICIDE

MAN KILLED HIMSELF AT ENTRANCE TO FRANKLIN PARK.

BOSTON, June 18.—An unidentified man committed suicide by shooting himself yesterday afternoon near the Morton street entrance to Franklin park. This is the second suicide in the park within a week.

Patrolman Calligan was on Morton street about 5, when he heard two shots in the park and soon discovered the body of the man lying in the bushes near what is known as the "Funeral bridge."

On the body rested a 38-caliber revolver with two empty shells in the chamber, and beside the body an open jackknife. Both wrists had been cut with the knife and there was a bullet wound behind the right ear. Beside the body was a pair of painter's white overalls, a dust brush and putty knife. In the pocket of the overalls was a box of cartridges.

SCHOOL CLOSINGS

Exercises Held at Several Schools Today

Graduating exercises were held at the Bartlett, Lincoln and Green schools this afternoon, and this evening the Varnum and Butler schools will have their exercises. The Butler at 7:30 and the Varnum at 7:45.

The Highland school will hold its graduating exercises tomorrow morning, the Pawtucket school tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 and the Moody school tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Because of the fact that there is no hall in the Edison school the exercises there are very simple; not at all as elaborate as in the other schools and are minus the formality of a printed program. There are no exercises at the Riverside or Greenidge schools. There are no ninth grade scholars at the Riverside and the ninth grade scholars from the Greenidge school went to the Butler school.

The programs of the exercises held this afternoon as well as those to be held this evening are appended:

VARNUM SCHOOL.
Processional, Delta Kappa Epsilon March A. R. Price
Singing, Over the Harbor Bar

Godfrey Marks here's a song, jolly lads, you can join in, For our ship's within sight of the bar, No more need your hearts be a-plumber, For the smiles of your sweethearts afar. Many weeks o'er the waves we've been dancing, Strange lands and fair faces have seen;

But brought far and near so entrancing As the shores of our country so green.

We've sailed thro' the bluest of water, And quaffed of the richest of wine; We've danced with Spain's sunny daughter,

But for Nancy at home we pine. And oft when the tempests are blowing, Our thoughts they will wander afar, To the home that with fondness is glowing.

And waiting just over the bar, Decadence, Rights and Duties, F. W. Robertson
James Cawley.

Singing, A Warrior Bold, S. Adams
Reading, Nobility, Alice Cary
Singing, The Sleeping Camp

Ed. St. Quentin
Dimple the stars shine in the sky,
Thro' the murky veil of night;

Faintly the moonbeams from on high,
Over the tents so still and white,
Waile on the campfire reddy gleaming,

My watch I'm keeping, my comrades sleeping,
Each of his home and loved ones dreaming,
Till trumpets call at morning light.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Fitch

How many brave hearts, to our sorrow,
Shall sleep the sleep of death tomorrow!

Brightly the stars shine from above,
On my dear old home again;
Sweetly with smiles she whom I love
Still hunches close and pain.

Oh! never more, my own, I'll grieve thee,
For war has ended, with victory splendid;
Oh, never again shall parting grieve thee,
A captive I in love's soft chain.

'Twas but a dream the camp is waking,
The trumpet on our slumbers breaking!

Brave my comrades, rouse ye,
Pravely the flag waves o'er ye;
Strong in your right, dash thro' the fight,
Comer or die for liberty!

Revelations, The Cape Cod Memorial,
John Black, Valmore DeLorme, Karl Lemon Wendell Titus.

Address,
Rev. O. C. S. Wallace, D. D.

Singing, The Two Grenadiers,
Schumann

From Russia were coming two grenadiers,
As prisoners long since they'd been taken.

But when they arrived at the German frontier,
Their brave hearts were sorely shaken.

For then they first heard of the sorrowful news.

That France's dominion had vanished,
Deceased and scattered her army of yore.

And the Emperor, the Emperor was banished.

How bitterly weep the two grenadiers,
When hearing the terrible story.

At last one said, "I've made my wounds

With fever and burning and gore."
The other said, "My song is sung,
I doubt that I were dying."

But I've a wife and child at home
For bread on a table!

"What matters wife or child to me?
A heavier care has arisen,
Let them beg of stars, if they hungry are!"

My Emperor is living in prison!
O comrades grant my dying prayer,
I feel my hours are numbered,
Take with thee my body to well loved France.

"Thine I would gladly slumber,
My legion's cross with nobly hand,
Here on my bosom place thou;
My mustlet give me in my hand.

My sword around me brace thou,
Then will I listen and be so still,
Like sentry guarding the fortice,
Until the sound of cannon I hear.

And tramping and marching of horses,
Then over my grave will my Emperor ride.

White swords flash brightly and rattle,
Then armed to the teeth will I rise from the grave.

For my Emperor, my Emperor to battle!

—Heinrich Heine.

Friendship of kindred friends.

Refrain:

School days, school days.

In our memories dear always.

With hearty thanks for loving care.

Our teachers saved through school days.

Though time and space may never.

The Butler schoolmates here.

'Tis only for a season.

The meeting time is ever near.

Refrain:

School days, school days.

Your praise will sing in sweetest days.

The hour is come, our class must part.

Part from our happy school days.

When ties are cut asunder.

It gives us inward pain.

We'll keep our memories tender.

In the hope to meet again.

Farewell, farewell!

To teachers dear and schoolmates all.

Our duty tells of future's call.

(Stephanie) Czubulka Chorus.

There is a light in skies afar.

Where morning lays her lifted finger.

And slowly pale grows night's last star.

As if it still were faint to linger.

From leaf and lawn and woodland gray.

The shadows one by one are going.

The mellow breeze is softly blowing.

And all the world awakes with day.

One by one the flowers awaken.

All along the glowing leas.

From their dewy slumber shaken.

By the murmur of the breeze.

Birds across the coming morning.

Tender hymns of gladness raise.

Sweeter, as the day is dawning.

Grow their matin lays!

Long may seem the night of sorrow.

Long and dark and overcast.

But the heart shall hail the morn.

And the morn-rise come at last!

Wait, O heart, and in the right time.

All the shadows shall take flight.

Day shall dawn and banish night-time.

And the darkness turn to light.

Song—Once in Awhile, Czubulka.

Once in awhile the sun shines out.

And arching skies are perfect blue.

Once in awhile 'mid clouds of doubt.

The stars of faith come peeping through.

Our paths lead down by the meadows fair.

Where the sweetest blossoms nod and smile.

And we lay aside our cross of care.

Once in awhile.

Once in awhile within our own.

We feel the hand of steadfast friend.

Once in awhile we feel the tone of love.

With the heart's own voice to blend.

And the dearest of all our dreams come true.

And on life's way is a golden smile.

Each thirsting flower is kissed with dew.

Once in awhile.

A perfect joy in our hearts we hold.

A joy the world cannot defile.

We trade earth's dross for purest gold.

Once in awhile.

Quartet—"The Brook," Gretschel.

Hurry, hurry, it is brook.

From thy shadowy forest nook.

All the time flowers are above thee.

Sweetly smiling look and love thee.

For they see their faces fair.

In a mirror reflected there.

Hark, O hark! In yonder bush.

Singeth in rapture the lonely thrush.

Little for his song thou carest.

Ever on thy way thou farest.

Naught can stay or hinder thee.

Till thou reach the mighty sea.

Who would not be glad and gay.

On this glorious summer day?

Now thou hast the dusky shadow.

For the daisy spangled meadow.

Where the willows droop, and leave.

Their green tresses in thy wave.

Song—"The Rosary," Nevin.

The hours I spent with thee, dear heart.

Are as a string of pearls to me.

I count them over every one apart.

My rosary, my rosary!

Each hour a pearl, each pearl a prayer.

To still the heart in absence wrung.

I tell each bead unto the end.

And there a cross is hid!

Memories that bless and burn!

Barren gain and bitter loss!

I kiss each bead and strive at last to learn.

To kiss the cross, sweetheart!

Rise the cross.

Semi-Chorus.

DIED OF POISON

Woman Was Once the Fiancee of Longworth

NEW YORK, June 18.—Miss Herman Frances Bloomer, who was killed by drinking a solution of cyanide of potassium from a glass she thought contained water, in her last apartment house, 40 East Twenty-sixth street, Wednesday night, was once the fiancée of Congressman Nelson A. Rockefeller.

The engagement was broken two years before Mr. Rockefeller's marriage to Alice Roosevelt, daughter of the president, but that they remained good friends was indicated by her being a guest at the wedding of her fiancé's statueque beauty won for her much admiration.

Miss Bloomer passed much of her time in New York, as the fiancée of Congressman Rockefeller, her home, did not agree with her. About a year ago she came into prominence because of her mysterious poisoning of her face with a powerful acid, and it was reported at the time her beauty had been destroyed, but after a serious illness she recovered.

After a thorough investigation, Governor Aertell said that Miss Bloomer's death Wednesday night was due to accident, and yesterday gave permission to take the body to Cincinnati for burial.

Miss Bloomer, who was 29 years old, and since January had been visiting her brother, J. Ralph Bloomer, a broker, had arranged to dine with him and some friends Wednesday night, and during the day, assisted by her maid, cleaned her jewelry in the cyanide. She died soon after drinking the poison.

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

On Monday, June 22, the summer stock season at Lakeview theatre will open, with the popular favorite of last year, Adam O. J. Company, headed by Miss Bessie O'Brien. The remarkable success achieved by the company at Lakeview last summer, has encouraged the management, in making plans for this summer, to secure novelties, so far as possible in the way of plays, and during the summer their patrons will have an opportunity to witness several performances of plays that have never before been seen in Lowell at popular prices. Special pretensions of each play offered will be made a feature, and in addition to the drama, entertaining specialties will be introduced incidentally to the performances.

STAR THEATRE

Edith Agnew, the Lowell man, continues to please his audience with his graceful dancing. He is a master of the art. The song, "If You Are No One's Sweetheart," sung by Babe Curry, is new to Lowell houses and has immediately become popular.

"Santiago Plaza," while not new, is being sung with great success by J. C. Hill.

There were pictures to instruct, and to interest and pictures to laugh over, all furnishing an excellent entertainment.

The program changes today and selections to please the usual Friday and Saturday audiences have been made.

Beautiful ties that bind.

Our hearts in childhood love.

Friendship of kindred friends.

Is like to that above.

Refrain:

School days, school days.

In our memories dear always.

With hearty thanks for loving care.

Our teachers saved through school days.

Though time and space may never.

The Butler schoolmates here.

'Tis only for a season.

The meeting time is ever near.

Refrain:

School days, school days.

Your praise will sing in sweetest days.

The hour is come, our class must part.

Part from our happy school days.

When ties are cut asunder.

It gives us inward pain.

We'll keep our memories tender.

In the hope to meet again.

Refrain:

Farewell, farewell!

To teachers dear and schoolmates all.

Our duty tells of future's call.

Farewell to happy school days.

Gavotte—Morn-Rise.

(Stephanie) Czubulka Chorus.

There is a light in skies afar.

Where morning lays her lifted finger.

And slowly pale grows night's last star.

As if it still were faint to linger.

From leaf and lawn and woodland gray.

The shadows one by one are going.

The mellow breeze is softly blowing.

One by one the flowers awaken.

GRANITEVILLE.

A very interesting and largely attended meeting was held last night at Graniteville, No. 175, E. of A. in the rooms of that popular organization. Considerable business of importance was transacted and the following officers were elected for the ensuing six months: Chief ranger, Michael B. Ledwith; sub-chief ranger, Thomas Hughes; recording secretary, Albert R. Wall; senior woodward, Elery V. Darling; junior woodward, Fred Leland; senior beadle, Timothy A. Riney; junior beadle, Fred DeGee; secretary, Florence J. Sullivan; trustee, Dr. W. H. Sherman. The court is now in a flourishing condition and shows a net gain both financially and in point of membership, during the past six months.

THE LOWELL SUN

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, PROPRIETOR.

Member of the Associated Press.

Three Dollars per Year. Twenty-five Cents per Month

The Sun receives the full day service of THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, the greatest news-gathering organization in the world. The entire service received over a leased wire, by our own operator, in our own office in The Sun building.

SWORN CIRCULATION OF THE SUN

The sworn daily net average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1907 was 15,453

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1908.
JAMES E. O'DONNELL, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest net average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

An advertisement placed in The Sun is of more value to the advertiser than if it were inserted in all the other newspapers in Lowell and the cost of inserting it in The Sun is about ONE-THIRD the price charged by the other papers.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

IT IS REALLY AMUSING, ALTHOUGH QUITE CHARACTERISTIC, WITH WHAT BLUFF AND BUNCOMBE THE REPUBLICANS GLOSS OVER THE PRESENT BUSINESS DEPRESSION AS A THING INEVITABLE. THEY REALLY FELICITATE THEMSELVES UPON TAKING "THE COUNTRY SAFELY THROUGH A FINANCIAL CRISIS, WHICH, IF IT HAD OCCURRED IN THE MIDST OF DEMOCRATIC RULE, MIGHT HAVE EQUALLED THE DEMOCRATIC PANICS OF THE PAST."

THAT IS REALLY THE ACME OF POLITICAL NERVE. THEY CANNOT BY ANY STRETCH OF IMAGINATION CALL THIS A DEMOCRATIC PANIC. THEY CONTENT THEMSELVES WITH SAYING THAT IT HAS NOT BEEN AS BAD AS SOME DEMOCRATIC PANICS. THAT STATEMENT IS MISLEADING. IN THE FIRST PLACE THE PANIC OF '93 WAS A REPUBLICAN PANIC, ALTHOUGH A DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENT HAPPENED TO BE IN POWER. IT CAME AS A DIRECT RESULT OF REPUBLICAN POLICIES, AS DID THE PRESENT, AND IT IS DIFFICULT TO SAY WHETHER THE PANIC OF 1893 WAS WORSE THAN THE PRESENT.

THE IMPERFECT CURRENCY SYSTEM TOGETHER WITH THE FRANTIC SPECULATION IN WALL STREET WAS THE DIRECT CAUSE OF THE PANIC AND THESE CAUSES WERE ACCENTUATED BY THE AGITATION OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AGAINST THE TRUSTS. HAD NOT THE TRUSTS BEEN PAMPERED BY EXCESSIVE TARIFF IMPOSTS THEY WOULD NOT HAVE ATTAINED SUCH MONSTROUS PROPORTION, THAT THEY CAN MANUFACTURE A PANIC AT PLEASURE.

IN ITS DEFENSE OF THE TARIFF THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM MAKES THE ABSURD STATEMENT THAT THE WAGE EARNERS OF THE COUNTRY ARE THE MOST DIRECT BENEFICIARIES OF THE PROTECTIVE SYSTEM. THIS IS A STATEMENT WHICH SENATOR LODGE AND EVERY REPUBLICAN DELEGATE KNOWS TO BE FALSE. THE TRUSTS ARE THE MAIN BENEFICIARIES AND THEY, THROUGH THE PROTECTION OF THE TARIFF, ARE ENABLED TO LEVY TRIBUTE UPON THE WAGE EARNERS AS THEY PLEASE BY STAMPING OUT COMPETITION AND FIXING FICTITIOUS PRICES FAR ABOVE THE ACTUAL OR INTRINSIC VALUE.

IN REGARD TO THE TRUSTS, AS MIGHT BE EXPECTED, THE PLATFORM HAS LITTLE TO SAY BEYOND THE FACT THAT THE SHERMAN ANTI-TRUST LAW IS IN FORCE TO REGULATE THE TRUSTS. WE HAVE THUS THE ABSURDITY OF MAINTAINING A TRUST PROTECTING TARIFF, WHILE AT THE SAME TIME MAINTAINING LAWS TO PENALIZE THE TRUSTS.

THE PLATFORM, AS USUAL WITH REPUBLICAN PLATFORMS, IS FRAMED FOR ELECTION PURPOSES ONLY, AND ALTHOUGH A PLEDGE OF TARIFF REVISION IS GIVEN THE PARTY, SHOULD IT WIN AT THE POLLS, IT IS AS LIKELY TO REVISE THE SCHEDULES UPWARD AS DOWNWARD.

THE NOMINATION OF TAFT

PERHAPS THE COUNTRY IS TO BE CONGRATULATED ON THE NOMINATION OF WILLIAM H. TAFT MERELY BECAUSE HIS NOMINATION HAS ELIMINATED ROOSEVELT. THE PEOPLE WHO DREADED THE AWFUL CONSEQUENCES OF FOUR YEARS MORE OF ROOSEVELT FEEL RELIEVED AS NOW THEY KNOW THAT HE WILL PROBABLY BE SUCCEEDED BY A MAN FAR LESS DANGEROUS. IT IS SAID THAT TAFT, BEING ROOSEVELT'S MAN, IF ELECTED, WILL FOLLOW ROOSEVELT'S POLICIES. BUT WE DO NOT BELIEVE HE WOULD BE SO BLIND TO THE INTERESTS OF THE COUNTRY. BEING A JUDGE AND A MAN OF ABILITY IN VARIOUS LINES HE WOULD READILY SEE THE DANGER OF SOME OF ROOSEVELT'S ERRORS. SUCH FOR EXAMPLE, AS ENCROACHING UPON STATE RIGHTS AND STRETCHING THE PROVISIONS OF THE CONSTITUTION TO JUSTIFY USURPATION OF POWER BY THE PRESIDENT.

FOR NEW ENGLAND'S INTEREST

THE SPRINGFIELD BOARD OF TRADE HAS ADOPTED RESOLUTIONS CALLING UPON GOVERNOR GUILD TO CALL A CONFERENCE OF THE GOVERNORS OF THE NEW ENGLAND STATES ON THE QUESTION OF THE CONSERVATION OF OUR NATURAL RESOURCES. THE RESOLUTIONS SET FORTH THAT IT IS HIGH TIME FOR THE NEW ENGLAND STATES TO GET TOGETHER IN AN EARNEST ATTEMPT TO DO SOMETHING FOR NEW ENGLAND. THAT IS A PRACTICAL STEP. NEW ENGLAND IS IMPOSED UPON TO A GREATER EXTENT THAN ANY OTHER PART OF THE COUN-TRY IN BEING PREVENTED FROM TRADING WITH HER NEXT DOOR NEIGHBORS IN THE PROVINCES.

IT IS IMPORTANT THAT NEW ENGLAND PROTECT HER FORESTS, AND THROUGH THEM HER SUPPLY OF TIMBER AND WOOD PULP AND HER WATER POWER.

NEW ENGLAND ENJOYS UNRIVALLED NATURAL RESOURCES AND SHE IS DISCRIMINATED AGAINST ON THE TARIFF AND ON FREIGHT RATES. THERE IS WORK TO BE DONE FOR THE GENERAL WELFARE OF NEW ENGLAND AND IT CANNOT BE ADVANCED IN ANY BETTER WAY THAN THAT PROPOSED BY THE SPRINGFIELD BOARD OF TRADE.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

POINTS ON SWIMMING

Fall River Globe: The time in which swimming is largely engaged in is at hand, and while swimming is a healthful, invigorating diversion and exercise, an acquaintance of which all should be in possession, it should be practiced with a degree of caution. The most skilled swimmer is not free from peril in the water. While he may in case of emergency be able to save his own life and probably the lives of others, the likelihood of his being seized with cramps is not removed and his expertness in swimming does not avail him if he be seized with cramps in mid-stream and out of the range of aid.

Is of course possible to lessen the peril from cramps and one may do so by refraining from entering the water after eating a hearty meal, when he is overheated or exhausted, and, besides, one should never make a practice to engage in swimming alone or without some companionship, as no one can feel quite sure from accident in the water. All should know how to swim, however, and those who do not need to go careful what sort of craft they go out sailing in for pleasure these summer days.

RECENT CONFUSION HEARST. Providence Journal: In the greater interest in more important matters, comparatively little attention is being paid to the meagerly recounted in New York, so long and so passionately defended. The results so far justify the suspicion that Mr. Hearst was not sincere in his assertions that he had been cleared out of an office to which he had been duly elected. At all events, he is enjoying now the "justice" he might have got in the first place by regular legal proceedings. It is clear that no substantial errors were made in the original count, and that the annoyance and expense entailed upon Mayor McCellan by the ill-judged insistence of Governor Hughes upon a bill afterwards declared unconstitutional were totally unwarranted. Doubtless it will be well to deprive Mr. Hearst of his martyr's robe, but there never was really any reason for excepting his claim to it.

Fall River Herald: Mr. Lloyd-George of England proposes that the national exchequer establish an international hospital fund. Merrie Old England must not be permitted to forget her former hospitality. Incidentally, this fund will be another strand of good will. The "machine" in this country wouldn't do a thing to a fund like that.

MEAT TARIFF FIGURES. Worcester Post: The tariff duty on fresh meats is from two to five cents a pound and on cattle 27½ per cent. ad valorem.

The meat trust adds every dollar of this tariff to what is a reasonable profit beyond what it pays cattle raisers. It sells in foreign markets at free trade prices in competition with the meat of all the world. The difference between its foreign and domestic prices is about the usual third of the tariff trusts.

In contradiction of its excuse of "scarcity" of cattle as the reason for the raising of prices to an amount of 50 cents in some cases in the last year, government statistics show that cattle population has increased only 13 per cent. in the last 10 years, the number of cattle has increased 25 per cent.

When Americans get ready to knock out the tariff support of the trust they will get their own meat as cheap as foreigners.

NEW BEDFORD, June 18.—New Bedford beat Lowell yesterday afternoon, 5 to 2. Delave prevented hits for eight innings, but in the ninth, after a chance to retire the side failed through fielding errors. SCORED ITS THIRD SUCCESSIVE VICTORY.

At Spalding park, yesterday afternoon, the Lowell police team secured its third successive victory for the season by defeating the Holyoke Breakers' team by a score of 11 to 7. The police team secured 11 hits, and the Breakers, seven. In stealing bases Matt McCann led the rest with three to his credit, while Hamilton and Bob McCann had two each. McCann and Hamilton each had one base on balls and the features of the game were the base running of McCann and Hamilton, and the back stop work of Donovan. Flanagan at first base for the police also gave great satisfaction. The police team has played three games, winning them all, and their next opponents will be the Lowell post office clerks, who are to play them Thursday afternoon.

A WARM BATTLE

Columbus Boy Stays

With Walcott

COLUMBUS, O., June 19.—Joe Walcott the Barbadoes demon from Boston, failed to put Russell Van Horn, the local boy, to sleep last night before the end of the sixth round. Walcott got the decision after a very clever exhibition of the real stuff. He made a hit with the crowd with his wonderful good humor, and tried to use it all through the fight, sticking his nose in Van Horn's face and trying to draw him out, but the latter failed to be drawn and Fire Alarm Joe had to be content with punishing Van's body until he had it cut to shreds.

The local boy's supporters were greatly surprised to find him stand such terrific onslaughts. Walcott showed all the old-time vim and vigor and seems to have not gone back at all contrary to the general run of fighters.

FLYNN OUTPOINTS CONNOLLY.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Owney Flynn of this city outpointed Young Connolly of Newark in the star bout at the stage of the Longacre A. C. last night. In the other bouts Jack Dempsey made Harry Sherry quit in four rounds; Kid Wette defeated Tommy Burns; Young Fay won from Billy Kramer; and Mike Grady drew with Sailor Stevens.

FINAL MEETING

OF THE SAM WALTER FESS LITERARY CLUB.

The Sam Walter Fess Literary club met in regular session Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Fred Bascom and Mrs. Fred Bannion in Shaw street. It was the final meeting of the season and nearly all of the members of the club were in attendance. The principal business of the meeting was the election of officers. The president, Mrs. J. A. Baker and the secretary, who had held office since the organization of the club six years ago, desiring a rest the following officers were elected: Mrs. Albert French, president; Mrs. Edward Foss, vice president; Mrs. W. H. Dodge, secretary; Mrs. W. H. Liphon, treasurer, and Mrs. W. E. Hatch, librarian. The subject for the afternoon was "What We Saw at Concord," being a description of the trip which the club took on June 4. A paper was given by the secretary, Mrs. W. E. Wheeler, giving an account of the trip, and a poem by Mrs. H. T. Fernald on the same subject which was very witty. The gentlemen friends of the club gave the ladies of the club an outing at Willow Dale on the evening of June 12, which was pronounced a success by all present, and a vote of thanks was given for the gentlemen. A game was then in order and dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses. The next meeting of the club will be held out 7 with the new president, Mrs. Albert French, 113 Parkview avenue.

GIRL PRISONER

Believed to Be on a

Tramp Barge

BOSTON, June 19.—A dramatic tale of a girl young damsel, 19 years of age, held a prisoner aboard an outgoing coal barge, was set up by the press yesterday in a message written on canvas, brown paper in blood red ink and contained in a bottle which floated ashore at Hull this morning.

While on a fishing expedition Earl Southey and Charles Noyes of Rockland, campers at Sagamore Hill, Nantasket, sighted the bottle as it was washed onto the beach, and curiosity prompted them to pick it up.

Then it was discovered that a note as it was enclosed.

It purported to have been written by one Grace Spooner of Island Pond, Vt., and made an appeal to the reader to aid the young woman to escape from the vessel on which she claimed she was being held a prisoner.

Here is the story as told by the piece of brown paper which the bottle contained:

To whom you find this bottle:

"I wish you would notify the authorities at Island Pond, Vt., that I, Grace Spooner of that town, am held a prisoner on a tramp schooner that left Boston June 17. The name of the schooner is 'Chemung' and from what I have heard she is bound for New York.

I have been held a prisoner on her since May 7 and am not allowed to leave. I am only 19 years old and lived in Dorby, Vt.

"I hope and sincerely wish that this will be picked up by some good, honest person who will pity me. I will cut this from the ship when we leave Boston light, when I have a chance."

All of the available telephone wires between Hull and the two northern Vermont towns were immediately put into use with inquiries about Miss Grace Spooner. So far as known, however, no reply has been received to indicate that such a young woman is known in that vicinity.

A search of the marine columns resulted in the discovery that a barge "Chemung" left Beverly on June 17, low of the tug Lackawanna, but so far as is known no prisoner was aboard.

FATALLY BURNED

Midnight Tragedy in Kirk Street House

Mrs. Cora Sears Upset Lamp While Reading in Bed — Ira Hammond Terribly Burned While Trying to Save Her — Lamp Exploded in His Hand — Distressing Wait for Ambulance

Mrs. Cora Sears, a middle aged woman, was fatally burned, and Ira Hammond, aged 32, who attempted to save her, was badly burned by the upsetting and exploding of a kerosene lamp at the lodging-house of Mrs. James L. Fitzgerald, 23 and 25 Kirk street, about midnight.

The woman's body and face were terribly burned while it is believed that she inhaled the flames, while Hammond's hands, arms and the upper part of his body were badly burned, particularly his hands.

A most distressing feature of the case was the fact that the unfortunate woman was compelled to be waiting with pain on a lounge for half an hour before the arrival of the ambulance.

to the charity's board, accompanied by a man in reding the force at the ambulance station. There is only one driver at the station at night and he was called out to take an inmate person to the city farm and was on his way there when the fire took place.

The fire took place in the room on the second floor occupied by Mrs. Sears. The latter made a practice of reading in bed, placing a kerosene lamp on a chair by her bedside. While thus occupied she upset the lamp and it fell over onto the bed, causing the fire to ignite. In an instant the bed clothing was ablaze and the flames quickly communicated to the unfortunate woman's night clothing.

Ira Hammond and his wife occupy a room on the floor above and Mr. Hammond was about to retire when he heard the screams of the Sears woman. Running down stairs he forced an entrance into the room, saw the situation at a glance and grabbing the lamp from the bed ran to the window to throw it into the street when it exploded, the flames catching his clothing and enveloping him.

Running out of the room Hammond dashed down stairs and into Kirk street and like a human torch proceeded up the street to the corner of Merrimack street, where he pulled in an alarm from box 21.

His appearance attracted a crowd while the screams of the woman could be heard at quite a distance and aroused the entire neighborhood. As Hammond ran back to the house his clothing began to fall in burning bits from his body. Entering the house again he ran to the bath room undoubtably to get water and as he entered fell exhausted on the floor where he was found a few minutes later by firemen from the Palmer street house who were quickly on the scene. He was then removed to the house next door where neighbors attempted to alleviate his suffering pending the arrival of the ambulance.

Meanwhile the other inmates of the house went to the assistance of Mrs. Sears who ran madly about the smoking filled room in a frenzy of pain. She was carried downstairs to the parlor and laid on a lounge where temporary assistance was rendered her.

The fire was quickly extinguished by the chemical engine and the firemen departed to answer box 14.

As soon as it was learned that two persons had been burned a call was sent in for the ambulance but there was no response. A local newspaperman then telephoned to the hospitals and the city farm and finally learned that the ambulance was on its way to the last named institution with an inmate person.

The hunt for a physician was almost as unsatisfactory as that for the ambulance but Dr. Wiggin was finally located and he rendered temporary aid to both sufferers. Dr. Wiggin stated that both were terribly burned and should be removed to the hospital without delay. Dr. J. E. Sullivan arrived with the ambulance shortly afterward and both parties were removed to St. John's hospital.

Mrs. Sears lapsed into unconsciousness shortly before the arrival of the ambulance, while Hammond, though suffering intense pain, was remarkably cool and never made an outcry, apparently being more concerned about his wife who was greatly excited.

Word was received from St. John's hospital at the time of going to press that the victim of the lamp explosion of last night, Mrs. Cora Sears and Ira Hammond, were both in a decidedly critical condition. Their names are on the danger list and little hopes are held out for their recovery.

LADIES' DAY

ENJOYED AT THE VESPER COUNTRY CLUB.

Yesterday was ladies' day at the Vesper-Country club and the attendance was large. The weather was all that could be desired and nature was at her best on the island. The afternoon program was an exhibition tennis match, and a bridge whist tournament.

The tennis match was between Lauren H. Martin, the crack player of the club, and Mr. Manning of Lexington. Martin won the match by taking two sets, 6-4 and 5-3. Manning winning one set, 6-4.

The whist tournament brought out eight tables. The prizes were won as follows: First, Mrs. A. J. Langley, 188; second, Mrs. A. G. Swamp, 155; third, Mrs. L. H. Kloss, 124.

At 6 o'clock supper was served out of doors, at small tables set in front of the old club house. From 7:30 until 9:30 the American band gave a concert on the green in front of the main club house.

BIG SUBURBAN

TO BE RUN AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY.

NEW YORK, June 18.—An ideal test of the popularity of racing under the patronage of the new anti-betting law is in prospect for this afternoon on the second day of the running of the suburban, handicaps. The oldest and most famous of the great open races at the inauguration of the Coney Island Jockey club, June meeting on the Sheepshead Bay course. Then the extent of the appeal made by the race itself as a spectacle will be tried under conditions that are absolutely new to the patrons of the turf about New York.

The law as interpreted by the police has been enforced absolutely by the police in the closing days of the Gravesend meeting.

At Sheepshead bay to try one of the latest prizes of the turf is offered in the 24th running of the suburban handicaps and the precedent a great public outpouring is expected.

FREIGHT TRAFFIC

STEAMSHIP LINES REPORT GREAT FALLING OFF.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The steamship lines which carry freight from this port to the West Indies and Panama have been hard hit by the slump in freight traffic. Representatives of these lines say that they are now carrying about two-thirds as much freight as they did at this season last year.

A lot of the bulk freight which formerly went to this port is now being shipped from Baltimore.

Shippers say it is a shorter haul to Baltimore and that they get a lower rate from there to West Indian ports.

A representative of the Red D Line says that the troubles in Venezuela have been responsible for a great falling off in freights to Venezuelan ports.
